Speaker Bios

Dr. Logan Faust, Au.D., CCC-A is an alumna of James Madison University where she pursued both her undergraduate and doctoral degrees. She has been practicing as a pediatric audiologist at Stanford Medicine - Children's Health in California since August 2019 and was awarded the R.O.S.E Award at Stanford Children's Health during her second year of service secondary to her "unique, stand-out service or a consistent pattern of behavior that ultimately contributes to an extraordinary experience." She has obtained certifications in subject areas such as diversity and inclusion in the workplace and inclusive leadership, and continues to actively seek out opportunities to understand the perspectives and lived experiences of others.

Joy Musser, Ph.D., CCC-SLP is the owner and founder of Musser Voice, a division of Musser Therapies LLC, where she has focused exclusively on gender affirming voice for the past 10 years. Prior to this, Dr. Musser worked as a voice pathologist with the clinically voice disordered population. She teaches graduate courses on voice disorders, as well as undergraduate courses in Communication Sciences and Disorders for Nazareth University and Purdue University Fort Wayne. Dr. Musser sees clients across the country and internationally, providing a holistic approach for gender affirming voice care.

History of the G. Paul Moore Symposium

This symposium is named in honor of Dr. G. Paul Moore, Distinguished Professor Emeritus and renowned scholar in the field of Communication Disorders. The University of Florida chapter of the National Student Speech-Language-Hearing Association (NSSLHA) organizes this event as a tribute to Dr. Moore's outstanding contributions in the fields of audiology and speech-language pathology. NSSLHA strives to host speakers that reflect the standards of excellence set by Dr. Moore. Our objective is to increase awareness of current issues and ongoing research in the field of communication disorders.
This course is offered for up to 1.0 ASHA CEUs (10 contact hours). Participants are required to attend the entire session to receive CE credit.
