Prerequisites for this course are SPA 3101 and either SPA 3003 or LIN 2210.

Course Description
The purpose of this course is to provide students with an introduction to speech disorders. Basic information about normal speech development is reviewed and then used as background for introductory study of the nature, assessment, prevention, and treatment of articulation, fluency, voice, and resonance disorders. The role of cultural variables in the identification and treatment of speech differences and disorders will be discussed, along with differences in speech disorders across the life span. Swallowing disorders, which often can co-occur with certain types of speech disorders, will be discussed, as well.

Program Outcomes & Clinical Certification Standards Addressed in this Course

This course addresses program outcomes that pertain to the following Clinical Certification Standards:

Completion of clinical simulations to build skills in fluency-related assessment and intervention activities.

Course Objectives and/or Goals. Students will be able to:
1) Discuss the profession of speech-language pathology and procedures necessary to become a speech-language pathologist.
2) Describe characteristics associated with normal speech production and swallowing.
3) Differentiate between communication, language, and speech.
4) Describe the structural bases and functional processes associated with speech production.
5) Describe how speech disorders differ from language disorders, and how the various speech disorders differ from one another.
6) Describe concepts and procedures associated with assessing speech-language performance.
7) Describe concepts and procedures associated with treating speech-language disorders.
8) Distinguish between a speech difference and a speech disorder.
9) Describe basic research findings related to:
   a) The etiology and characteristics of fluency, voice, articulation, and resonance disorders,
   b) The effects of these disorders on the ability to perform daily activities,
   c) The ways in which environmental and personal factors affect speech functioning and the manifestation of speech disorders.
10) Describe specific procedures used to assess speech fluency, articulation, voice, and swallowing.
11) Interpret basic clinical data that pertain to fluency, articulation, and voice functioning.
12) Describe evidence-based methods used to prevent and treat fluency, voice, articulation and swallowing disorders.
13) Describe how the characteristics of specific speech disorders vary across the lifespan.
14) Discuss the ways in which cultural factors affect the clinical management of individuals with speech disorders.
15) Describe ethical issues that relate to the clinical management of speech disorders.
16) Demonstrate basic clinical skills that are used in the assessment and/or treatment of fluency, articulation, and voice disorders.

Instructional Methods

Instructional methods used in this course include recordings of lectures by the instructor with accompanying PPTs, case-based learning, clinical simulations, online discussions and guest speaker(s). In addition to Canvas, students will use Packback for discussions and assignments (see details in syllabus schedule).

You are expected to actively engage in the course material throughout the semester. To get the most out of this class, it is essential to stay on top of the weekly materials. This preparation gives you the knowledge or practice needed to engage in higher levels of learning. If you are not engaged on a regularly basis, you may struggle to keep pace, and it is unlikely that you will reach the higher learning goals of the course. Your participation fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers that facilitate overall mastery of the course objectives. We will have weekly chats that offer the opportunity to ask questions. The chats are not mandatory but the instructor will record the chat for review at any time.

D. Exam, Quizzes, Group Projects, Packback Discussion Posts, and Participation/Attendance Policy.
There will be 2 tests, 4 quizzes, and group presentations. The tests, quizzes, and discussion posts will all be online including presentations. Students will be using Honorlock proctoring services for quizzes and tests. Students will be required to take the practice quiz that will help familiarize students with Honorlock. Assessments will open on Thursdays at 6PM and close on Sundays at 11:59PM. Discussion posts must be submitted on time and those that are submitted late will not receive full credit.

Group Project: You will be divided into small groups of up to 4 students to create a presentation researching a specific speech disorder. Topics will be posted in Canvas. Throughout the summer you will be expected to research the topic, create a PPT presentation that you will present via zoom as a group in the last week of the semester. You will be expected to work together as a cohesive group in creating your presentation. Details for the group presentation will be posted in Canvas.

Packback: Your participation on Packback will count toward 15% of your overall course grade.

- There will be a Weekly Thursday at 11:59PM EST deadline for submissions.
  - In order to receive full credit, you should submit the following per each deadline period:
    - 1 open-ended Question every week with a minimum Curiosity Score of 60, each worth 33.33%
    - 2 Responses every week with a minimum Curiosity Score of 60, worth 66.67%
  - (Half credit will be provided for questions and responses that do not meet the minimum curiosity score)
○ Posts must be submitted on time and those that are submitted late will not receive credit.

How to Register on Packback: An email invitation will be sent to you from help@packback.co prompting you to finish registration. If you don’t receive an email (be sure to check your spam), you may register by following the instructions below:

1. Create an account by navigating to https://questions.packback.co and clicking “Sign up for an Account” Note: If you already have an account on Packback you can log in with your credentials.
2. Then enter our class community’s lookup key into the “Looking to join a community you don't see here?” section in Packback at the bottom of the homepage.
   a. Community Lookup Key:
3. Follow the instructions on your screen to finish your registration.

Packback may require a paid subscription. Refer to www.packback.co/product/pricing for more information.

E. Policy Related to Make-up Exams or Other Work
- Make-examinations following illness or examination will be offered at a time determined by the instructor, and it is possible that the format of the make-up examination may differ from that of the original examination.
- Please note: Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail me within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.
- Extra credit points/assignments will not be granted. Plan to give your best performance on a graded assignment the first time around.

F. Policy Related to Required Chat Attendance
- Chats are not mandatory. They will be recorded for review. Your questions, comments, and observations make the chat and course lively as well as interesting and are an intrinsic aspect of professionalism. Personal issues with respect to the course or fulfillment of course requirements will be handled on an individual basis.
- For additional details regarding the UF Attendance Policy see the Registrar website: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS, ROLES, AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR INPUT

Expectations Regarding Course Behavior

A. Communication Guidelines:
- Student questions and concerns about the course should be made via email (difino@phhp.ufl.edu). All email correspondences about course-related activities should be done using your UF email account.
- Professionalism implies that you are actively engaged in material, complete assignments/assessments on time and communicate with instructor with concerns, questions, etc...

B. Academic Integrity
Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity. As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge:
“We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For additional information regarding Academic Integrity, please see Student Conduct and Honor Code or the Graduate Student Website for additional details: https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/
http://gradschool.ufl.edu/students/introduction.html

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

C. Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

SUPPORT SERVICES

A. Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
If you require classroom accommodation because of a disability, you must register with the Dean of Students Office http://www.dso.ufl.edu within the first week of class. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation of accommodations to you, which you then give to me as the instructor of the course to receive accommodations. Please make sure you provide this letter to me by the end of the second week of the course. The College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to assist students in their coursework.

B. Counseling and Student Health
Students sometimes experience stress from academic expectations and/or personal and interpersonal issues that may interfere with their academic performance. If you find yourself facing issues that have the potential to or are already negatively affecting your coursework, you are encouraged to talk with an instructor and/or seek help through University resources available to you.

- The Counseling and Wellness Center 352-392-1575 offers a variety of support services such as psychological assessment and intervention and assistance for math and test anxiety. Visit their web site for more information: http://www.counseling.ufl.edu. On line and in person assistance is available.
• You Matter We Care website: http://www.umatter.ufl.edu/. If you are feeling overwhelmed or stressed, you can reach out for help through the You Matter We Care website, which is staffed by Dean of Students and Counseling Center personnel.

• The Student Health Care Center at Shands is a satellite clinic of the main Student Health Care Center located on Fletcher Drive on campus. Student Health at Shands offers a variety of clinical services. The clinic is located on the second floor of the Dental Tower in the Health Science Center. For more information, contact the clinic at 392-0627 or check out the web site at: https://shcc.ufl.edu/

• Crisis intervention is always available 24/7 from:
  Alachua County Crisis Center
  (352) 264-6789
  http://www.alachuacounty.us/DEPTS/CSS/CRISISCENTER/Pages/CrisisCenter.aspx

Do not wait until you reach a crisis to come in and talk with us. We have helped many students through stressful situations impacting their academic performance. You are not alone so please do not hesitate to ask for assistance.
