PURPOSE AND OUTCOME

Course Overview: During the semester, the prospective Audiology Research Projects (ARP) for (upcoming and current) 2nd year AuD students will be developed while the ARP for the 3rd year students will be completed.

Relation to Program Outcomes: Successful completion of this course and its requirements allows for the student to meet set standards from ASHA’s CAA and CFCC. Students completing this course will have meet the following ASHA Audiology Standards:
- IV-a18. Principles and practices of research, including experimental design, statistical methods, and application to clinical populations
- IV-a22. Oral and written forms of communication
- IV-f2. Applying research findings in the provision of patient care (evidence-based practice)

Course Objectives and/or Goals: At the end of this course, students will be able to:
- Describe the diversity of research problems and/or questions in hearing science;
- Demonstrate application of the scientific principle by:
• developing a research question,
• conducting a literature review on the proposed question,
• creating and implementing a study design/method,
• and by conducting the study, evaluating the results, and answering the research question.

• Present the motivation and rationale for scientific questions orally and in writing

Instructional Methods: This course, over multiple semesters, is taught via a hybrid and/or blended learning approach. Hybrid courses have both in-person (on-campus) and virtual (either synchronous or asynchronous) meetings. Furthermore, as a variable credit course that is taught over various semesters, in-class meetings may vary from semester to semester. Additionally, depending on semester, the student may have more individual meetings either with the instructor or their project director instead of “class meetings”.

Blended Learning: This course will implement a blended learning approach.

What is blended learning and why is it important?

A blended learning class uses a mixture of technology and face-to-face instruction to help you maximize your learning. Knowledge content that, as the instructor, I would have traditionally presented during a live class lecture is instead provided online before the live class takes place. This lets me focus my face-to-face teaching on course activities designed to help you strengthen higher order thinking skills such as critical thinking, problem solving, and collaboration. Competency in these skills is critical for today’s health professional.

What is expected of you?

You are expected to actively engage in the course throughout the semester. You must come to class or individual meetings prepared by completing all out-of-class assignments. This preparation gives you the knowledge or practice needed to engage in higher levels of learning during the live class sessions. If you are not prepared for the face-to-face sessions, you may struggle to keep pace with the activities occurring in the live sessions, and it is unlikely that you will reach the higher learning goals of the course. Similarly, you are expected to actively participate in the live class or individual meetings with the project director and/or class instructor. Your participation fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers that facilitates overall mastery of the course objectives.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSE CONTENT

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

*Please note that this course can be taken multiple times for various credit. Only the Research Project Course taken Summer, Year 1 requires the following activities. Grading for Research Project course beyond Summer, Year 1 will be based on project tract selection and student-mentor agreement regarding project requirements.

Assignments: As students are participating in research, and to facilitate their understanding of ethical research, ALL students, regardless of project tract, will complete UF’s IRB training. This training will be completed through “myTraining” and submitted summer, Year 1. Students are required to stay up-to-date on this training for any project on which they are working. This training may be required for submission of an IRB application as appropriate for each student’s project. IRB 803 can be access at https://irb.ufl.edu/index/requiredtraining.html. Once completed, students should be able to access their transcript and download a certificate that indicates the training has been completed. Students will submit a copy of this certificate via Canvas by the due date. This assignment is worth 15 points.
Students are also to complete a plagiarism training program and earn a certificate with a passing score. A copy of the certificate will be uploaded via Canvas. This assignment is worth 15 points.

Students will also submit a mentorship agreement form (Part 1; worth 10 points) and a faculty approval form (Part 2 of the agreement form; 10 points).

Project Proposal: Students will complete a literature search on their proposal topic. Once completed, students will write up a proposal for their study. This proposal will include an introduction, literature review, rationale for need of project/study, an initial project design (method section), and a brief paragraph about the anticipated outcomes/findings of this project/study. A first draft (50 points) will be submitted via Canvas for review and comments by the instructor. Students are expected to use the feedback to help in revising the first draft for a final project proposal (50 points) that will also be submitted via Canvas. Additionally, students will provide an oral presentation of their project proposal to their classmates (50 points). Students are strongly encouraged to use Draft Coach to review their projects for writing and research skills as well as to check for plagiarism. Students found to have plagiarized part of, or the complete assignment, will receive a grade of zero for that assignment and may be sent to the Honor Council regarding the offense. Plagiarism offenses also include the use of AI to generate any part of the student’s project proposal submission (barring any use AI as a specific part of the experimental design). Details on Draft Coach are in the Canvas course.

Quizzes: This class will have two quizzes. The first quiz will be on material covered on the usage of the APA Manual (7th edition). Students will be using the APA Manual for formatting of their project proposals, and eventually, the final product. The second quiz will be on writing basics, such as grammar. Student will reference both the APA Manual and the Writing Essentials textbooks. Each quiz will be worth 20 points.

Grading: Grades will be determined based on successful completion of the activities listed above. All assignments are point based, for a total of 250 points. See scale below for letter equivalent.

Policy Related to Make up or Other Work

All assignments are expected to be turned in on the day/time indicated in the syllabus (at start of class unless otherwise specified). Late assignments will be accepted up to three (3) days post due date. Two (2) points per assignment will be deducted per day for, up to three days. After three days, no late submissions will be accepted and the student will receive a "0" for their grade. Exceptions/extensions will be granted for those that have an excused absence that meets the UF policy for excused absences. Please notify the instructor at least 1 week in advance for known absences. For classes missed due to illness, doctor notes should be submitted within a timely manner (e.g., 3 days) unless alternative dates are offered by the instructor. Please notify the instructor as soon as possible for any missed class due to illness to allow for alternate due dates on assignments when possible.
Students should make all attempts to submit the required work by the due date as the instructors have organized the class to keep students moving in a successful progress towards the completion of their project. Should a student need an extension on an assignment, they should contact both instructors at the earliest opportunity to request an extension. As some students will be further along in developing their research/project idea, it is possible that a due date may be extended until the student is able to obtain the needed signatures or complete the assignment. Students asking for an extension acknowledge that receiving an extension may result in a grade of incomplete (I) for that semester. Students have until the following semester to submit the missing work/assignments so that the “I” can be corrected. Failing to do so could results in a grade of “F”.

Please note: Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the UF Computing help desk (http://helpdesk.ufl.edu/) correspondence. You MUST e-mail me within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

Technical Support: For technical support for this class, please contact the UF Help Desk at:
- learning-support@ufl.edu
- (352) 392-HELP - select option 2
- https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml

Policy Related to Required Class Attendance: Students are expected to attend class. Although attendance will not be taken, students are strongly encouraged to attend all classes to facilitate better understanding of the topic. Furthermore, interaction with fellow students helps to facilitate learning and discussion. Lastly, it is the student’s responsibility to make arrangements to obtain notes from the missed class’s lecture. All assignments are still due at the beginning of the class (unless otherwise noted) via Canvas regardless of attendance, with the exception for those that have an excused absence.

Please note all faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/#text). Additional information can be found here: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS, ROLES, AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR INPUT

Expectations Regarding Course Behavior: Students are expected to attend class, arrive on time, and provide minimal distractions during class (e.g., please make all attempts to not “step outside of class” during lectures, presentations, etc.). Students are expected to be respectful of any presenter, be they instructor, guest speaker, or fellow student. Therefore, electronics should be turned off and stored during ANY presentation by a guest lecturer or classmate. Students are expected to come prepared to class, having read and/or completed any prior assignments. Student engagement not only makes it easier for those participating in the discussion/activities to learn the material, but it also facilitates dialog and discussion among students that might not occur otherwise.

Communication Guidelines: Students are expected to demonstrate professionalism in all interactions, including with classmates, teachers, research participants, lab co-workers, etc. Should a student anticipate being late or absent from class, they should notify the instructor prior to class whenever possible. Any course discussion, via email or via Canvas (e.g., discussion board) should be courteous and respectful of classmates, even when there are differences in opinion.

Academic Integrity: Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity. As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge:

“We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”
You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For additional information regarding Academic Integrity, please see Student Conduct and Honor Code or the Graduate Student Website for additional details:

https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/
http://gradschool.ufl.edu/students/introduction.html

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

Recording Within the Course:

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Policy Related to Guests Attending Class:

Only registered students are permitted to attend class. However, we recognize that students who are caretakers may face occasional unexpected challenges creating attendance barriers. Therefore, by exception, a department chair or his or her designee (e.g., instructors) may grant a student permission to bring a guest(s) for a total of two class sessions per semester. This is two sessions total across all courses. No further extensions will be granted. Please note that guests are not permitted to attend either cadaver or wet labs. Students are responsible for course material regardless of attendance. For additional information, please review the Classroom Guests of Students policy in its entirety. Link to full policy: https://phhp.ufl.edu/policy-classroom-guests-of-students/
Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process
Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Inclusive Learning Environment
Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida’s Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, “The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans’ Readjustment Assistance Act.” If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu
